

Aara J. Holtzclaw
Drug Story
April 2, 2015
JAC 265-03
Professor Leonard

JAC 265 News: Aara Holtzclaw Drug Bust

Video	Audio
ON CAM → STAND UP (:07)	This afternoon, officials from the Marion County sheriff's department discovered a mobile home compartment filled with more than 300 pounds of marijuana. (:07)
MS: Mobile Home (:04) WS: Marijuana (:03) CU: Brown bags (:03)	Local officials say they received word of suspected illegal activity from Gainesville police who were directly notified by the California Drug Administration. Major Eddie Wright has more details. (:10)
Interview on CAM (:05) MS: Detective (:03) CU: Compartment closing (:02) MS: Detective walking (:03) Interview on CAM (:07)	INCUE: "It was hard to find...
WS: Mugshot 1 (:03) WS: Mugshot 2 (:03) WS: Mugshot 3 (:03) WS: Mugshot 4 (:03)	OUTCUE: in finding that for us." (:20)
ON CAM → STAND UP (:09)	Frank Ramirez, Alejandro Garcia, Jamie Lopez, and Gary Fournier were all involved in transferring drugs across the country. While the vehicle was found with Iowa tags - investigators are still unsure where the transfer began. (:12)
TRT: (:58)	The four men are being charged with trafficking marijuana and possession of drug paraphernalia. They will appear in court on March 11. I'm Aara Holtzclaw and you're watching JAC 265 News. (:09)
	TRT (:58)

--	--